We can understand a private party objecting to GAIL's participation. Why should one department of the government object to the other department? We would like to hear the stand of the Centre," it asked.

Seeking a recall of the apex court's order last December that directed the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board to consider GAIL's financial bid, IOC said that it has already emerged as the successful bidder and is entitled to the grant of authorisation for laying, building and operating the pipeline. However, Gail requested the apex
